

NEPTUNE SAVES A SINKING SHIP

Loaded Schooner Run on Flats to Prevent Sinking.

THREE SOLDIERS SENTENCED

Charged With Breaking Into Armory and Stealing Shirts.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) NORFOLK, VA., April 6.—The three-masted schooner Allen Green, lumber laden, arrived here to-day in tow of the ocean-going tug Neptune, leaking. She was sent on the Berkeley flats here to save her and the cargo. The schooner sailed from Wilmington, N. C., March 25th, for Portland, Maine, and sprung a leak in a forty mile gale, which blew her off this coast yesterday. She was in a bad way when picked up by the Neptune and brought to this harbor.

BOLDIERS SENTENCED.

Three members of the Seventy-first Regiment—Gee Pentress, William Prem-per and James Daye—were sentenced to jail for six months to-day for stealing military shirts from the armory. One of the men, Pentress, was accused of breaking into the armory, but on account of the condition of his young wife, Judge Allan R. Hanchel imposed a light sentence and omitted the fine.

CHARGED WITH MURDER.

Howard, alias Bud, Stills, died at St.
Vincent's Hospital this morning, as the result of pistol wounds inflicted by Alexander Redd, Jr., on Tuesday night. The two men met at the house of Mrs. Mary Ross, in Church Street, and quarreled about Minnie Williams, of Queen Street, with whom both were infatuated. Redd insisted that he shot in self-defense, as the deceased was advancing on him in a deadly manner with a glass pitcher as a weapon. Stills was a fish dealer, thirty-two years of age. Redd is a bartender for Church Lane, and the son of Alexander Redd, a grocer and saloon keeper. He will have two witnesses, Mrs.
Ross and an inmate of the Hampton Soldiers' Home, George W. Burchfield, as witnesses that he acted in self-defense with a pistol to the man with a pitcher.

KEEP OUT OF POLITICS.

The meeting of the Bar Association in Portsmouth this night has caused a great deal of comment here to-day. There was an effort to oppose the nomination of Judge William N. Portlock, who was elected as judge of the First Judicial District, consisting of Portsmouth city and Princess Anne and Norfolk counties, at the meeting for the short term, from being proposed to the next Legislature to succeed himself. The meeting failed. There were but fourteen persons and one proxy there, and the majority was in favor of Judge Portlock, and the resolutions passed were to the effect that the Bar Association should keep out of politics.

IT IS INTENDED THAT THE MEMBERS OF the bar of Norfolk have more practice in the court than the members of the bar of Portsmouth have, and the bar here is for Judge Portlock.

DR. MACKIMMIE DISCHARGED.

DR. CHARLES R. MACKIMMIE, who was arrested at the drug store where he sold the girl, Edith Turner, or Anderson, who committed suicide, got the morphine she swallowed, was discharged in the Police Court this morning. Justice Simmons declared there was not sufficient evidence on which to hold him to trial, and ordered him to be released on the basis of police bonds. There were packages with his name on them, and the girl in the same house said she and the suicide purchased sixty grains of morphine at Dr. Mac-Kimmie's, but he and one of his clerks denied positively that they had sold the drug that night.

HUSBANDS IN TROUBLE.

Thomas Lambert, a painter, was sentenced to jail for six months this morning and required to give a bond of good behavior for twelve months of $250 on the complaint of his wife. There was evidence that he was drunk and trifling, and that the wife had earned the living for the family of several children as a dressmaker. But there was evidence also that the accused had struck his wife.
She said she was willing to work and to endure the burden of the drunkenness, but she was determined not to stand a beating.

ALFRED SPEER'S SURPRISE.

Well Known Business Man Tells of Peculiar Experience.

Few business men are better known throughout the country than Alfred Speer, of Passaic, N. J. Although he is over eighty-one years of age and the head of a large concern, as well as the editor of the Passaic Item, yet he found time to write the following letter, hoping that it would be of interest and benefit to our readers:

"To the Editor:—"

I cannot begin to express my surprise at the wonderful relief and benefit I derived from the use of Hyomel. For some years past I have been a victim to nasal and throat catarrh, and during that time have expended a great many dollars to specialists, and had my throat sprayed, washed and smoked week after week. The first time I used Hyomel I was surprised at the change it brought.
This was a few months ago, and I have used it occasionally since. It makes me so well that it often forces me to neglect it for several days, but each time when I breathe it the hawking and discharge cease, and it is wonderful how it acts.

"I am over eighty-one years of age, and careful not to praise anything until I know what it is all about."

"Respectfully yours,
"ALFRED SPEER."
The complete Hyomel outfit, including the inhaler, costs but $1, while extra bottles sell for 50 cents.

T. A. Miller's drug store sells Hyomel on guaranteed plan, refunding the money if it does not give complete satisfaction. Mail orders will be filled promptly on receipt of price. Complete outfit, $1.00; extra bottles, 50 cents.

and launched yesterday at "Turkey Island wharf." The launching was a great success. The rain did not interfere with the attendance, a great many people coming from Richmond, Manchester and from adjoining counties.

A big damper was held in the evening at the house of Mr. Hanchel. Miss Atala Walker, of the Glens, who has been attending Farmville Normal, has been home sick for some time. She is now at Norfolk, under the care of physicians.

ROMANTIC MARRIAGE.

Visits Ostrich Farm and Saw the Power of a Bird's Kick.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) ROXBURY, VA., April 6.—A surprise was caused in the neighborhood of Dun-ton Monday night, when cunning cupid got in his work in style. Mrs. Mantel was called from her great chamber about 8:30 o'clock by a young man, who was apparently very nervous and excited.
"Please tell me the way," said the young man, in an exciting manner. "Only about two miles down the road," said the Mrs.
Mantel, whose curiosity had been roused by the late hour. The young man, who was asked by the lady, "Oh, no," said the young man, "not quite so bad." He was soon in his buggy by the side of his intended bride. The couple was soon at the home of the preacher, who made them one. The contracting parties were Mr. John Linscomb, of Westwood, Va., and Miss Jessie Ford, of Cedar Grove.
The groom is a prosperous young businessman of his section, while his bride is a most charming young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Ford, of Detroit, Michigan. The bride was born in Virginia, and is now making old Virginia her home.

No one can imagine the cause of the secretary of the marriage, so there was apparently no opposition to the match.

Mr. A. P. Walker, of Roxbury, who has been visiting his sister, Mrs. Linscomb, at White Springs, Fla., for several weeks, has returned home. He visited the ostrich farm and had the pleasure of seeing those birds in the hands of a negro that nearly kicked a negro that nearly caused the death of the man.

SHAD AND PERCH.

Season Opens and Many Big Catches Are Made.

WESTOVER, VA., April 6.—The fishing season on the James River has opened and drift nets and large haul seines at "Berkeley Shore" operated by R. B. Knox, one making big catches of shad. The white perch are largest caught for years, and are more abundant.

G. M. Walker, superintendent of county roads, has purchased for use on the public roads a fine pair of mules. Mr. Walker is gradually getting the highways into some kind of shape.

The steamer Aurora, on the line to Petersburg is doing a good business, and is a great convenience to fishermen and shippers generally.

It is rumored that a gasoline steamer of small size will be put on the river between Weyanoke and Richmond to make daily runs for fish freights.

I. C. Valden was in Richmond on business

early this week.
The roll of honor for Battery school, Miss Lillie M. Todd, teacher, is as follows: Maudie Ruffin, Carrie Ruffin, Virginia Walker, Henry Cornick, Robert Cornick, W. F. Knox, Stuart Knox.

THOMPSON PLACED IN JAIL IN CHARLOTTESVILLE

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., April 6.— W. J. Thompson, charged with the murder of his wife and two children, was brought to this city at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon and lodged in the city jail.

A DAILY LINE WEST POINT TO BALTIMORE

The Garrett-Gatewood Slander Suit Was Postponed.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

WEST POINT, VA., April 6.—The steamer Charlotte, of the York River Line, came this morning, beginning the daily line between West Point and Baltimore.
A special afternoon train will be run from here to Newport News Saturday for the launching of the battleship Minnesota.
Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Heffernon and niece, Miss Julia Jennings, left this morning for Richmond, where they will be joined by another niece, Miss Aline Jennings, for an extended trip South, as far as New Orleans; thence to New Mexico. They were to leave Richmond to-night and be away a month.

The fifth lecture of the University Ex-

ension Course, by the Richmond College faculty, will be given Friday night, April 7th, at the Baptist Church, by Professor R. E. Gaines; subject, "Graphic Methods."

The slander suit called for the present term of King William Circuit Court of Garrett vs. Gatewood et al., has been postponed until the next term of court.

West Point was visited by a hard rain most of yesterday and an electric storm about 9 P. M. last night, which left it quite cold, making fires and wraps very comfortable.

WHARTON HAD ONE WIFE TOO MANY

His Petersburg Mate Finds That She Was Number Two.

THE MAN SAYS ITS A MISTAKE

He Came to Richmond and Then Disappeared—Tench Secures a Verdict.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

PETERSBURG, VA., April 6.—Robert L. Wharton, a traveling salesman, who married a young lady of this city January 27, 1904, is wanted by the police here and in Washington, on the charge of bigamy.

Wharton is originally from St. Paul, Minn., where, it is said, he was married May 10, 1891, from which wife he has never been legally separated. Chief of Police Ragland learns from the Washington chief of police that Wharton's first wife is now living in Washington. Wharton with his Petersburg wife, arrived here from Savannah, Ga., Tuesday evening on a visit to Mrs. Wharton's relatives, but no arrest could be made at that time, as there was no warrant and little information.

BIGAMIST DISAPPEARS.

Wharton said that a mistake had been made and that he would go to Washington and settle the trouble, whereupon he left for Richmond on the electric car at 8:30 in the evening, stopped at the Lexington Hotel and has not been seen since.
Mrs. Wharton, the second, went to Washington yesterday where, it is presumed she was convinced of the man's crime, as last evening Captain Ragland received a telegram from Chief of Police Sylvester, of Washington, asking that Wharton be held for bigamy. His present whereabouts are unknown, but his capture is expected.

TENCH GETS VERDICT.

A conditional verdict for $4,500 is the present status of the suit of Charles E.
Tench against the Seaboard Air Line Railway Company for $10,000 damages, for alleged libel. The jury could not agree last evening and reached the above verdict after remaining out for nearly two hours this morning. Wm. R. Mc-Kenny, counsel for the Seaboard Air Line Company, moved that the court set aside the verdict, which motion, with the demurrer to the evidence, will be argued Saturday.

It is stated that on the first poll the jury stood seven for $10,000, one for $5,000, two for $2,000, one for $1,500 and one for $1,000.

DIED ALONE.

Body of Shoemaker Found in His Shop Eaten by Rats.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

SMITH'S X ROADS, VA., April 6.—Mr.
Bartlett Crowder, a shoe maker, and repairer, living at South Hill, Va., died suddenly some time during the night of the 4th instant. Mr. Crowder lived alone and worked at his trade in a very small shop on one of the principal streets of the town.

Mr. Tom Reeks was the first to discover the body, having left a pair of shoes at his shop, he was repaired a few days previous, called yesterday morning for them, but not receiving any response to his repeated calls, he decided that something was the matter and broke the door, which was securely propped on the inside with heavy pieces of wood.

On entering the room, he found the body to be stiff and cold, and very much disfigured by rats, which he frightened away, thus having eaten his nose entirely off as well as one of his toes.

The town authorities after examining the body, decided that an inquest was not necessary. Mr. Crowder was about seventy years of age, and appeared perfectly well the evening before death.

His death is supposed to have been caused by the excessive use of whiskey.

MARTIN MUST MEET MONTAGUE

The Senator's Friends Declare He Should Publicly Defend Himself.

RESENT THE ATTACKS MADE

Martin Men Declare They Will Carry Every Precinct in Albemarle.

(Staff Correspondence.)

CHARLOTTESVILLE, April 6.—There is a very general, in fact, almost a unanimous opinion in Charlottesville, that Senator Martin should meet Governor Montague and publicly defend himself against attacks which the Governor made upon him in the speech at Spotsylvania Monday and at Yorktown the following day.
The news in The Times-Dispatch to-day that Senator Martin would make a public address soon was received here with pleasure. Of course, in Senator Martin's home town there is an overwhelming sentiment in favor of his return to the Senate. It is in the highest degree complimentary to him that the strongest friends he has in Virginia are men who have known him longest.

These, naturally, resent the attacks which the Governor has made, and insist that the senator should reply, and at once.

Senator Martin should answer Governor Montague on the stump," said a leading member of the Charlottesville bar this morning. "I believe he can more than hold his own in joint debate with the Governor. He is not an orator, but while he practised here he was recognized as the head of the bar. As an advocate he was not surpassed here, and this has always been a strong bar. I am a supporter of Senator Martin's, and, of course, biased in his favor, but I have no fear as to the outcome of a joint debate. We have to have it. I am not sure it will be to the best interest of the Democratic party in Virginia. These discussions will do good. These discussions will do good. These discussions will do good, but they seem to me to be necessary."

This is but a sample of numerous utterances on this subject which I have heard here in the past three days. Charlottesville and Albemarle county are watching the senatorial contest with peculiar interest, and Senator Martin's friends are eager to express opinions and to offer him advice.

It is asserted by close friends of Senator Martin that he has made up his mind to meet Governor Montague in joint debate.

The Governor has some strength in Charlottesville. I have talked with several men who say they shall vote for him. He is strong with the railroad men, owing to the belief that he was friendly to the employers' liability bill. The railroad employees are numerous in Charlottesville.

"The Martin men claim, however, they will carry every precinct in the county.
There may be more Montague strength than they suppose."

It is predicted that Mr. Willard will carry Albemarle. Judge Mann has a great deal of strength, and, of course, Mr.
Swanson is strong. Judge Mann's supporters are quiet. I have seen a number of his buttons on lapels. Mr. Willard's face done onto a button appears frequently. Mr. Swanson's buttons are demurely reported to be in the hands of the supporters.

Many of Senator Martin's staunchest friends in Albemarle are said to be for Mr. Willard for the gubernatorial nomination. This leads to the prediction mentioned that Martin (of course) and Willard will carry the county. It is said the majority of those who will vote for Mr.
Montague for the gubernatorial nomination will vote for Judge Mann for the nomination to the gubernatorial office.

Pulaski Politics.

PULASKI, VA., April 6.—The political not has started to boiling in earnest here since the party leaders here are getting on their fighting clothes and the fight will be waged to a finish. This section is, so far as can be learned, almost solid for Swanson. Ellyson and Martin.
There are several candidates for the House of Representatives from this county. The contest will be for Hon. J. T.
Loving, for a number of years Mayor of Pulaski, and clerk of the Legislature, and for Hon. J. T. Love, a lawyer and a good politician. It would be impossible to get a man who would do more for his county than Loving.

HALIFAX COURT.

Sheriff T. R. Jordan Resigns and W. D. Shapard Appointed.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

BLACK WALNUT, HALIFAX COUN-TY, VA., April 6.—After lasting a week and a half the March term of Halifax Circuit Court adjourned late yesterday afternoon, and Judge Harkdale left today for Lunenburg to hold court in that county.

One of the last orders of the court was the appointment of W. D. Shapard as sheriff. Mr. Thomas R. Jordan, of this place, having tendered his resignation. Mr. Jordan retires to private life with the good wishes of his fellow citizens who have honored him with the office of Circuit Court clerk, and then the sheriff for a period of twenty years or more. He is a popular man, and could be elected probably to most any county office, but he recently moved back to this village, his former home, where he desires to spend his remaining days quietly with his family and old friends.

SWANSON NAILED HIM.

Holds a Man to a Promise Made Four Years Ago.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

BOYDTON, VA., April 6.—Mecklenburg is beginning to warm up over the gubernatorial and senatorial contest, and the friends of the candidates are beginning to get on their feet. The primary election is to be held before the primary.
I think Mr. Swanson is decidedly the favorite in this county for Governor, though Mr. Willard has some very influential friends, who are working quietly for him. The people have a high regard for both candidates. Mr. Swanson has a remarkable memory. A gentleman who was a member of the old electoral county board told me this morning that when Mr. Swanson was conversing in the contest with Governor Montague he told Mr. Swanson that that was not the time for him to run for Governor; to wait, and the next time he offered he would support him. So after Mr. Swanson declared his purpose to run he wrote to this ex-member of the electoral board, reminding him of his promise to support him in his present contest, although it had been four years since the promise had been made.

NORTH CAROLINA MONUMENT READY

Erected in the Rear of the Site of Old Herndon Church.

GETTING READY FOR CROWD

The Unveiling Will be Attended by Many Veterans as Individuals.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

WEST APPOMATTOX, VA., April 6.— The North Carolina Appomattox Confederate monument was erected in position last week, just in the rear of the site of old Herndon Methodist Episcopal Church, about one and a half miles from the station of West Appomattox by the side of the public road and about one mile through for pedestrians. It is about half way from the old courthouse and West Appomattox.

Mr. C. A. Abbott had charge of erecting the speaker's stand and improving the grounds around the monument.

The people of West Appomattox old courthouse and the county are preparing to entertain their friends and strangers for the occasion. Notwithstanding the unfortunate inscription, which caused the camps of the United Daughters of the Confederacy not to attend the unveiling as organized societies, many distinguished veterans, Daughters, Sons and old soldiers will attend the exercises as individuals and Virgians.

Letters of acceptance of the hospitality of the Appomattox people come in on each mail. Many will attend to avail themselves of the cheap rates to visit the surrender grounds, as there are many in the towns and surrounding counties who have never been to the place.

In 1892 the old courthouse burned down, then the citizens voted to erect the new courthouse at Appomattox Station on the Norfolk and Western Railroad. The site of three acres was given by Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Hunter for the new buildings of the clerk's office, law offices, jail and courthouse.

"The thrifty town of West Appomattox has been steadily growing ever since. It has two good schools, one bank, two newspapers, four churches, five large stores, a good millinery, flouring mill, saw mill, three hotels, two livery stables, undertaker's establishment and many other improvements and industries.

It is said the land bordering the railroad is the poorest in the county, but there are some fine farms and substantial farmers in the county giving West Appomattox a fine trade.

The Appomattox Camp, Commander Major Joel Flood; Appomattox Memorial Association, Mrs. T. A. Smith, president; Appomattox Chapter, U. D. C. organized by Mrs. C. W. Hunter, represent the Confederate societies of the county.

The chapter has engaged the Soldiers' Cemetery with an iron fence, erected marble headstones, planted trees and flowers and tured the nineteen graves.
An immense crowd and a good time are expected the 10th of April.

VIRGINIA BRIEFS

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

BOYDTON, VA., April 6.—The business soon be completed.

of immediate assistance.

FREDERICKSBURG, VA.—It is said
